

Cision® Renews Partnership with the International Luxury Hotel Association

Successful relationship will continue to expand Cision's reach in the hospitality sector.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- International Luxury Hotel Association, the luxury hospitality industry's biggest influencer, and Cision, one of the industry's largest content distribution networks, have renewed their partnership to distribute content across each other's respective networks.

Cision's PR Newswire distribution service will continue to deliver real-time travel news content to the International Luxury Hotel Association's website and the ILHA will share important luxury hotel industry news via Cision's content distribution network.

Barak Hirschowitz, President of the International Luxury Hotel Association said, "We are very excited about sharing Cision's real-time content with our audience. Cision's PR Newswire is one of the largest content distribution networks and will further expand our reach. Based on the successful relationship over the past few years we are excited to renew our partnership."

"The International Luxury Hotel Association is the largest influencer in luxury hospitality," said Joshua B. Cohen, Cision's vice president of content licensing and distribution. "By relying on the ILHA's extensive audience, our partnership will continue to expand our reach into important niche sectors such as luxury hospitality."
